If you are unfamiliar with Webex, please try to connect a bit in advance to connect. In case of issue, please send an email to michail.papadakis@uni.lu and maxime.cordy@uni.lu

 SOCIAL EVENT ***

To end the conference on a friendly note, you will be able to participate to an online escape game on Friday at 15:00. The game will be played in teams and will challenge your problem-solving and collaboration skills.

We will give more details about it during the conference, so stay tuned!

Requirements to play:

- A computer with Zoom installed
- A smartphone or a tablet
- A sheet of paper and a pen
- A Competitive and strategic spirit, good humor and creativity ;-)

 PROGRAM ***

Our program is composed of 2 keynotes, 1 "ASK me anything" session, 6 "technical papers" and 15 "presentation abstracts". The complete program is available on our website: <https://benevol2020.github.io/>

 PRE-PRINTS ***

The pre-print version of all "technical papers" (i.e., the version which was submitted) are freely available on the website (by clicking on the title of the paper in the program section): <https://benevol2020.github.io/>

 PRESENTATION INSTRUCTIONS ***

Please aim for a talk of 10-12 minutes maximum such that we have at least 3-5 minutes for questions. We kindly request each presenter to open their slide deck and be ready to share their screen at the end of the preceding presentation.

 QUESTIONS/ISSUES ***

If you have questions or issues at any point before/during the conference, please send an email to michail.papadakis@uni.lu and maxime.cordy@uni.lu

 THANKS ***

We would like to thank the program committee for producing outstanding reviews in a short amount of time. Even though we could not welcome you in Luxembourg, we hope that you will enjoy the conference in its virtual format!

Mike and Maxime
